At Probert's, uring these red-hot days, will be found soda-water, richer and sweeter than the mythological "nectar of the gods." The printing of the premium list for the Agricultural Society, of this county, has been given to THE SALINE COUNTY JOURNAL. People often remark about the fine clothe the young gentlemen of Salina wear. All of this finery came from the Salina Clothing Store.

There are pretty good indications that the struggle for county offices this fall will be redhot. Somebody is bound to be "busted!"

If you wish your wife to look ten years younger, go to Mrs. Murphy's and buy her a f shionable summer hat. She will suit you.

Werry has at last moved his building at the depot alongside our office. It will be used for an ice-cream stand. It is now being repaired. Councilman Brown designs erecting a dwelling-house on his lots near the Presbyterian church building, sometime during the summer. We notice that strawberries have been quite plentiful in our market this week. Strawber-

SPECIAL SERMON .- Mr. Boynton will deliver a special sermon at the Methodist church, next Sabbath evening. Subject: "Duties towards young men, in view of the DANGERS to which they are exposed.

Major Geo. C. Probert, finding his present place of business inadequate to his fast increasing drug and medicine trade, contemplates building a large stone or brick business house sometime during the present season.

TRADE.-A gentleman desires to trade two Plarge sorrel horses-good roadsters, gentle, are somewhat known in this "neck o' the sound, and in every way fitted for farm workfor two yokes of American oxen. For particulars, enquire at THE JOUENAL office.

Mr. Thomas, the great livery man of Law rence, has just brought to Donegan's livery stable, several span of very fine farm horses, and he offers them for sale cheap. Thomas is a goodjudge of horses, and his stock must be first-class.

A small party was in the city Sunday, from Quincy, fils., said to be the advance of five hundred persons from that region who will settle in Cowley and other new counties south. They came by teams. The others will come by rail to Salina.

We heard a man say, the other day, that the great object of his life was to prepare to die eating ice-cream; he was so fond of it. He must have been at Whitman's, where at all sweetly flavored cream. Give him a call.

Dr. J. W. Dailey is putting up a building alongst of our office, thirteen by twentyfour feet. It is to be occupied by one, "Hue," once of Junction City, now of Salina, who does so nicely at Hamlin & Wooley's store; real name Smith. We like such good neighbors.

R. T. Watson has come out with a bright, new delivery wagon, and it is highly ornamental. Your groceries will now be delivered anywhere within the city limits, if you will only buy them of him. His place of business is one door south of Probert's drug store, where you can find the choicest groceries, queensware, wooden-ware, &c., always on hand.

Some bad boys stole a pie from our window the other day, but conscience-stricken, they duly returned the same in good order, with about the edges. By reason of their timely repentance, we consented not to tell their "parents;" still, we advise our neighbors to be a of the prowling youths that live in the southwestern part of the city. This is no " joak."

Mr. Hedenburg, who lives nearly opposit the Presbyterian church, on Saturday last killed a snake in his house about four feet in length. It had crawled to the top of the kitchen safe, and attention was directed to it from hearing it fall off. Mr, Hedenburg went at it, but it was not dispatched until help was called m. It was of a greenish color, and is said to be as poisonous as the rattle-snake.

Mr. E. E. Bowen has opened a real estate of fice one door north of Gray's photographic gallery. He comes to our city well recommended, and is, apparently, well [qualified to meet with success in his new home. He will also pay special attention to conveyancing, and will attend promptly and with care to all business given him in the United States Land Of-

He was in England when Napoleon Bonaparte was brought a captive there, and, afterwards, while his vessel was in port at St. Helena, for water, he met the conquered emperor in person.

One going into Tressin's, now, will see a material change for the better. The stairs leading into the second story, have been moved to the rear of the store-room, the front room enlarged to include the vacancy and the storing room widened. The front room in size is forty by twenty-two feet and is well filled with a splendid stock of hardware, tinware, stoves, &c. Back and adjoining all is the manufacturing room, the improvement of which has been no ted before. Tressin has otherwise been adding to the place in building a neat lime house and good fences. Charley has done a good work all round.

the establishing of any kind of a mail route to Lindsburg, the county seat, notwithstanding they had urgently demanded it. They get their mail matter, haphazard by hand, from Salins, as some one happens to come up. It is a shame that they have so long been neglected and illy-used in this respect. A tri-weekly mail route should be established at once between the two places. McPherson county is an excellent one, is welf peopled and rapidly filling up. The hours of the day or night, can be found the places. McPherson county is an excellent one, is well peopled and rapidly filling up. The Congressional delegation should look to the furnishing of additional mail facilities to several parts of the country.

We are indebted to Mr. J. Girard, of Lake Village, McPherson County, for the following account of a tragedy that occurred near that place, on the 12th inst. : " About 6:30 P. The dictionary fight at the court house, las evening, was only a little skirmish, after all The Herald had previously announced itself a ship of which has elicited from us that vulgar a candidate for "office,"-which is nothing un common for its editor—and seemed very anx ious to get the dictionary. Not supposing we needed a book of this kind, we advised all o our friends to east their votes for the Herald because we honestly supposed that that paper was not possessed of anything of the kind. We based this supposition upon their style of or thography. It will be quite a curiosity for the we have whacked at lately, endeavored to vent their spleen by putting in quite large sum of money to beat us. We love opp and are happy to have enemies. We believe our dictionary will answer all purposes for some time, although it has no pictures, is without covers, and is "dog-eared," muchly. The Herthe exception of a few imprints of childish teeth ald got the county printing for nothing, and wanted the dictionary for nothing. Let them peruse profitably what is contained within its sheets and they will make the Herald's much better paper.
